

BIPOC in Publishing Editorial Internship (Spring, part-time) Barefoot Books, Inc. | Concord, MA

Barefoot Books, an award-winning independent publisher of illustrated children's books is committed to building a diverse team. In response to the lack of underrepresented and marginalized voices in the publishing industry, we offer a Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) in Publishing Editorial Internship.

This is a paid, part-time, in-office* position that will run for 15 weeks, 14 hours per week. Start and end dates are flexible. We can also offer college credit and recommendations.

Our internships are in-person in our Concord office, though scheduling can be structured around other obligations. This policy is dependent upon the status of COVID-19 and the health of the population.*

The internship is open to anyone who identifies as BIPOC, including those of African/African American, Asian/Pacific Islander, Latin American, Middle Eastern or Native American/Indigenous descent.

We are looking for a bright, hardworking individual with excellent editing and writing skills, a fertile imagination and an interest in a career in children's literature. Barefoot is an entrepreneurial company with a fast-paced environment, so the ability to work quickly and efficiently is a must. Editorial and writing experience are a plus but not required.

What you'll do:

The intern's responsibilities will include reading and assessing potential manuscripts, contributing to content development, proofreading and helping to perform editorial administrative tasks. The intern will gain an understanding of the overall editorial process, will hone their writing and proofreading skills and will work with a variety of projects at different stages of development.
